WIVES RAISE FUNDS FOR ALS

Last year the Phillies wives raised $118,595 in charitable donations for ALS (Lou Gehrig's Disease). Proceeds help maintain and support the ALS Diagnostic and Treatment Center at Hahnemann University Hospital.

Plans for 1989 include an autograph and memorabilia show on Sunday, July 30 after the game with Pittsburgh. During the memorabilia show the wives will auction off 100 items including the special green Phillies uniform which will be worn on St. Patrick's day this spring and last year's blue road uniform which is no longer worn by the Phils.

HISTORY & RECORDS

All statistics reflect a player's career as a Phillie only.

PHILLIES HISTORY

The first game in National League history was played in Philadelphia in 1876, the Philadelphia Athletics facing Boston on April 22 at 25th and Jefferson Streets. The Philadelphia entry, however, didn't last the season and so the Quaker City was without representation in the National League until 1883. Alfred J. Reach purchased the Worcester, Mass., club (Brown Stockings) and moved it to Philadelphia, adopting "Phillies" was the official team name, a takeoff on Philadelphia or Philly.

The name "Phillies" is the oldest team name in the league.

The Phillies' initial game as a 4-3 loss to the Providence Grays, before 1,000 at Recreation Park, 23rd Street and Ridge Pike. Bob Ferguson managed the Phils in that first game, May 1, 1883.

In 1887, The Phillies moved into a new "magnificent park" at Broad and Huntingdon Streets, which was later to become known as Baker Bowl (capacity 15,000). An estimated 20,000 jammed the park for the game on April 30 and saw the Phillies maul the New York Giants, 19-10.

One of baseball's biggest disasters struck the Phillies in 1903. Twelve people were killed and 232 injured when the left field bleachers collapsed after fans had climbed to the top row to get a better view of a near-by fire.

The Phillies' owner in 1910, Horace Fogel, started a personal campaign with the press to change the name of his club. "The name Phillies is too trite and the Quakers (as they were sometimes called) stands for peaceful people who will dodge a fight. We're not going to fight. Why don't you fellas call the club the 'Live Wires'," Fogel pleaded with the press. His efforts went for naught.

Baker Bowl, which had a short-field line (280 feet) and a rather deep left field (341) became the site of the World Series in 1915 as the Phillies won their first league title. The Boston Red Sox, however, took the World Series, four games to one.

In 1927, the Baker Bowl wooden bleachers again gave way, and the Phillies, through the graces of Philadelphia Athletics' owner John Shibe, were invited to play at Shibe Park until the necessary repairs could be made. "I remember our first game in Shibe Park very well," recalled the late owner Gerry Nugent. "It was the day Lindberg arrived in Paris."

Back to Baker Bowl went the Phillies, who played the first Sunday baseball game in Philadelphia there in 1934, losing to Brooklyn, 8-7.

The Phillies moved permanently to Shibe Park on July 4, 1938 after 51 years at Baker Bowl. The Phils lost the first game to Boston, 10-8, but came back behind the pitching of Claude Passeau to win the nightcap, 10-2.

Late in 1943, the Phillies were sold to R.R.M. Carpenter, Jr. Between Reach and Carpenter, nine others owned the club. To stimulate interest in the club, a contest was conducted to find a nickname for the Phillies. For 1944 and 1945, the club was known as the Blue Jays, although they still maintained the official "Phillies" title.

Seven years after Carpenter took over, the Phillies rose to become National League champions, for the second time in club history. Again, the World Series crown eluded them, as the New York Yankees swept the series, 4-0.

Bob Carpenter, after 29 years as the club president, moved up to chairman of the Board on Nov. 22, 1972. He was succeeded as president by his son, Ruly Carpenter.

After 32 1/2 seasons in Shibe Park-Connie Mack Stadium in which the Phillies won 1,205 and lost 1,340 the club moved into the spectacular new Veterans Stadium for the 1971 season.

The Philadelphia Athletics won the first game at Shibe Park, 8-1 over Boston on April 12, 1909. The Phillies won the park's finale, 2-1 over Montreal on Oct. 1, 1970 a 10-inning battle.

In the first game played in the 56,731 seat Veterans Stadium, the Phillies defeated the Montreal Expos 4-1 on April 10, 1971.

By the end of the decade the Phillies had developed into one of baseball's top franchises, winning division titles in three successive years, 1976, 1977 and 1978.

Then finally on Tuesday, October 21, 1980 at 11:29 p.m. the Phillies achieved the ultimate - they became World Champions for the first time in their 98-year history. The Phils downed the Kansas City Royals, four games to two, and Mike Schmidt was named the Series MVP.

The Carpenter era with the Phillies came to an end on Oct. 29, 1981, when they sold the club to a group headed by Bill Giles.

For the second time in four years the Phillies captured the National League Pennant in 1983 and played for the World Championship. However, history did not repeat as the Phils lost the series to the Baltimore Orioles four games to one.

Players must have five or more years of service to be eligible. Managers and coaches need four years. Candidates must be retired for three years before they become eligible.

DID YOU KNOW?

The Phillies came into the National League in 1883, having moved from Worcester, MA (Brown Stockings). They have been known as the Phillies ever since, the longest running nickname in pro sports. Although the club was known as the Blue Jays in 1944 and 1945, the name was never officially changed from the Phillies.

If the team bats around and a pinch hitter comes up a second time in the inning in which he first appeared, he will not be considered a pinch hitter during that second time up.

ROSTER LIMITS: 40 until opening day, when the number must be reduced to 25 until September 1, when it again becomes 40 (maximum).

SUSPENDED GAME RULE: For the purpose of this rule, all performances in the completion of a suspended game shall be considered as occurring on the original date of the game.

A game terminated by light failure or malfunction of mechanical field device under control of the home club is a suspended game anytime after it begins.

1964 PHILLIES RETURN IN AUGUST

The Phillies "Whiz Kids" captured the Philadelphia fans' frenzy when they won the pennant in 1950 over the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Pennant hopes didn't appear again until 1964 when Gene Mauch and his bunch of young Phillies battled their way into the lead. For 150 games, Mauch and the Phillies could do no wrong. The result, a 6½ game lead with 12 to go.

Then, everything went wrong as the club suffered a heart-breaking 10-game losing streak to fall behind the Cincinnati Reds. The Phillies went to Cincinnati and won the last two games of the season, knocking the Reds out of the pennant. The Cardinals, who handled the Mets that last weekend, won the championship.

The 25th anniversary of that team will be celebrated on August 19, the annual Equitable Old-Timers Games. Many of the 1964 stars will be back to play a three-inning game against other major league stars from the same year.
